The Turbomachinery symposia provide continuing education to their attendees. The Turbomachinery Laboratory and the symposia advisory committee is strongly committed to presenting our symposia in a commercial-free environment. The guidelines sent to all presenters state that presenters are to avoid commercialism of any kind. In clarifying these general guidelines, we are requiring that all presenters sign and return the following agreement.

_____ I understand and agree that all written and visual

elements involved in my presentation will follow the guidelines received from the Turbomachinery Laboratory and be completely free of commercialism of any kind. This includes reference to commercial products, company names, trade names, logos, and websites. I will also be responsible for the presentations of any copresenters.

Please contact Heather Rodriguez (phone: 979-862-7112, email: heather@turbo-lab.tamu.edu) with any questions you might have concerning the guidelines.
