

METS2 Discussion Group 3

Ken Savoie is currently working as a Manager of the Rotating Equipment Group in Qatar Shell's Gas to Liquids Plant in Qatar. He has worked in the Rotating Equipment field for over 25 years and has spent the last 32 years with Shell Oil Company supporting major projects and plant operations in Qatar, USA and China.

Ahmed Rahimi is currently head of Rotating Machinery in QAFCO. He graduated from Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas in 1999 and joined Qafco as a Mechanical Engineer in the Maintenance Department. In 2002, he joined Qafco-4 Expansion Project as a Mechanical Engineer and in 2006 joined Qafco-5 Project as a Lead Rotating Machinery Engineer. In 2010 Mr. Rahimi was appointed as Head of Rotating Machinery.

Abdou Ramdane is the District Sales Manager for Compressor Seals & Systems at FLOWSERVE Gulf FZE, based in Dubai-UAE. He started his career in 1981 as an application engineer in Sealing Technology. He worked in USA, UK, Canada, Middle East & North Africa in different assignments as technical, sales and projects for Rotating Equipment discipline. Mr Ramdane graduated in 1980 from Georgia Institutes of Technology (Georgia Tech) in Atlanta-USA, with a BS in Mechanical Engineering.

Jim Gilbert is currently Technical Manager in the newly formed Turbomachinery Group within John Crane MEA, based in Dubai. He is responsible for all aspects of dry gas seal service and reliability improvements on turbo products, test facilities and customer sites, problem solving, dry gas seal test and field failures and root cause analysis (RCA) work. He graduated in 1986 with an honours degree in Mechanical Engineering from Loughborough University. During this period he was sponsored by London Transport and joined their technical support team full time upon graduation. He joined John Crane in 1987 and a Product Development Engineer and held a number of different technical positions, including Global New Product Development Manager, before joining the Gas Seal Group as their Commercial Manager in 2000.

Patrick Shaw graduated in 1984 in Mechanical Engineering to enter the Mechanical Seal industry initially as an Application Engineer with Sealol in the UK. He joined EagleBurgmann in 1989 and since then held positions in Technical Management, Operations Management, Project Sales, Product and Project Management in the UK and from 2000 in the Middle East where he is currently Technical Director for the MENA region.